Fees

We offer a wide range of fees because most programs are customized. After the initial telephone call or e-mail inquiry, we will discuss the specifics of your program; then you will receive a written quote.

What determines your price quote?

- Travel distance from Chicago, Illinois
- Length of presentation and type of program
- The selection of participant bonus items *

What lengths of time do you speak?

- Keynotes 45-90 minutes
- Workshops 1-4 hr, 1-2 days; Coaching Clinic 1-2 days
- Customized sessions: varies according your needs

What do you mean by “type of program”?

- Standard program: This is generally used for keynotes and a few short workshops. The content is already prepared.
- Customized program: Many workshops, training sessions and sermons. The material is completely created, organized and delivered to meet the specific needs of your audience. This is the most popular style of program.

 What are the Bonus Items?

The bonus items is what makes your event unique. I also believe the bonus items separates me from others you may be considering. We will discuss this during the initial call however here are some items to consider:

- Participant Assessments (pre-event or during presentation- very popular)
- Pre-event site visit or pre-event meetings
- Spiral bound resource guides in place of regular handouts
- Number of door prizes
- Written post event report
- Summary presentation to management
- One-on-one or group coaching with select staff after the event
- Teleconference or Webinar service
- Articles for newsletters and in-house publications
- Digital recording of seminar put on CD for participants
- Train-the-trainer programs and evaluations
- Books for participants
