

Managing and motivating the new workforce is the key to organizational success.

Deanne De Marco

Questions

Why hire an NSA member?

Have you won any speaking awards?

How do we book Deanne?

Will you hold a date for us?

Do you have a rate for non-profit organizations?

How much experience do you have?

Why hire an RCC Coach?

What else should we know about you?

Why hire an NSA member?

The National Speakers Association (NSA) is the leading organization for speaking professionals. Speakers must qualify in order to belong to this organization. NSA includes experts representing a variety of industries, and who speak to audiences as trainers, motivators, consultants, educators, and more. Since 1973 NSA has provided education to advance the skills, integrity and value of its members and the speaking profession.

Back to top

Have you won any speaking awards?

I have won numerous national and international speaking awards. Most people have heard of Toastmasters. I have won many first place local, district and regional awards in humorous speaking. I have also won numerous first place speaking awards through the National Forensic Association. In total I have won over 35 speaking awards.

Back to top

How do we book Deanne?

If you already know the date of your event, then call our office or e-mail me to discuss the specifics of your program. We will then e-mail a proposal to you. When all the details are agreed upon, a contract is signed and returned with a deposit.

Back to top

Deanne DeMarco 708-836-0118, 800-881- 7809 www.GenXBizCoach.com

Managing and motivating the new workforce is the key to organizational success.

Deanne De Marco

Will you hold a date for us?

Absolutely! We are happy to pencil in a date on the calendar for you with no obligation. If another client becomes interested in that date you will have first right of refusal. No deposit is required to hold a date, however- airlines tickets will not be purchased without a deposit.

Back to top

Do you have a rate for non-profit organizations?

Yes. All the specifics will be discussed about your organization and the details of your program. Your non-profit status will be taken into account when preparing your quote.

Back to top

How much experience do you have?

I started out as a university instructor. Over the years I have taught in a medical school, a major university, and have lectured at a number of junior colleges. When I left academia I worked in several fortune 500 companies, and have consulted in many industries including medical, pharmaceutical, utility, and banking. I present an average of 58-77 keynote and training programs a year to a variety of industries. I have spoken to small audiences as well large audiences of over 1,000. I am a full-time speaker and focus on keynotes, teambuilding, and business excellence workshops.

Back to top

Why hire an RCC Coach?

The RCC (Registered Corporate Coach) is awarded through the WABC (World Wide Association of Business Coaches). The RCC is for business executive coaches. One must qualify prior to enrollment and then in order to receive the RCC designation complete classes, oral and written requirements, demonstrate competency, and pass an exam. In addition to the RCC- I am one of a select handful of coaches allowed to teach the RCC certification course (which required additional training and certification).

Back to top

What else should we know about you?

I have been known for being very creative. I often use games and toys in my presentation, and I believe in fun. I am a gourmet cook and love to flambé'. On a serious note I have a strong Christian faith. Through my spiritual ministry I often donate my time and resources to churches.

Back to top